WHEREAS, the Student Affairs Services (SAS) shall be known as Student Engagement and Support Services (SESS) to clearly and straightforwardly make known to its target stakeholders the nature of the programs it intends to carry out;

WHEREAS, the separation of the Student Engagement and Support Services Division from the Office of the Vice President and Academic Affairs intends to provide close monitoring and support to student services division in implementing programs and services for the studentry;

WHEREAS, the creation of SESS as a separate division further elaborates its rationale which is to focus on the creation of consequence-based activities, projects and/or programs;

WHEREAS, this move is to prepare the institution's organization for long term setup where the student engagement and support services division is separated from the academic division due to the expected increase of programs and services it intends to provide in line with the projected increase of student population which will require a more focused supervision and monitoring.
