PROGRAM DESIGN

Crimson Tribe Lantern Festival 2023
“Tila Tala: Liwanag Ng Pasko Noong Nakaraang Dekada”

RATIONALE

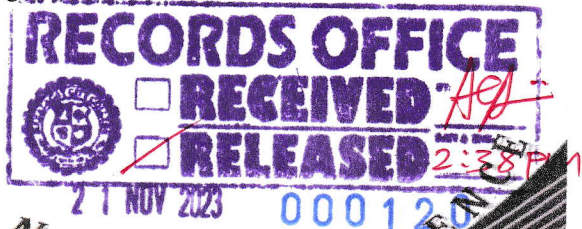

The Mabalacat City College Supreme Student Council will organize a year-end program entitled: Crimson Tribe Lantern Festival with the theme Tila Tala: Liwanag Ng Pasko Noong Nakaraang Dekada. This is a festivity of lanterns from recognized student organizations made from earth-friendly materials. This program is done annually and this year will be its third celebration to once again promote love, happiness, and the spirit of Christmas in the Mabalacat City College Community. The program will be on December 6-7, 2023 at MCC main campus following the health protocol from 4:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

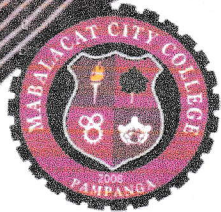

I. OBJECTIVES

- To celebrate the annual celebration of Christmas.
- To boost the talent and skills of MCCians through creative caroling and spoken poetry.
- To showcase a lantern-making contest using earth-friendly materials.
- To commemorate the birth of Christ and feel the spirit of Christmas.
- To recognize and give tribute to some grandmothers who raised an MCCian.

II. STRATEGIES:

- ✓ The MCC-SSC consults the event with the MCC-SSC adviser and AVPSL.
- ✓ Delegate the event to the Institute Student Council and Student Organizations.
- ✓ Make a sponsorship letter to the target companies/institutions/individuals to fund the event.
- ✓ Invite performers from different organizations, request the ambassadors to usher the grandmothers, and seek help from MCO to manage the crowd.
- ✓ Invite all the admins and staff of each office inside the campuses.
- ✓ Send a letter to the AVPAA for requesting of class cancellation
- ✓ General Secretaries will generate letters to the LGU requesting stage, chairs, benches, barricades, walkie-talkies, tarapal and tents. Letters of request for other equipment, for the judges, and other matters are to be generated by the General Secretaries as well.
- ✓ Senator on Communication and Correspondence will message the performers, process the letters, and post and share all publication materials and announcements to Facebook and Student Leaders group chats.
- ✓ Senator on Budget and Finance and Senator on Audit will manage the raffle, canvas prices, and buy the needed materials for other matters.
- ✓ The Senator on Logistics will create a publication materials and trailer of the event that will be posted to the MCC-SSC official Facebook page.
- ✓ The VP for Administration and Finance, AVP for Student Life, two artists of Mabalacat City College, and 6 non-teaching personnel are the judges for the Lantern-Making competition, Spoken Poetry, and Christmas Carol competition.
- ✓ Create a survey for MCCians who are raised by their grandmother.
- ✓ Create two (2) video presentation: one (1) acted based on one of the students' stories of their life with their grandmother and one (1) interview type interaction of grandmothers and grandchildren.
- ✓ Invite up to 50 grandmothers out of all the grandmother-raised MCCians to be the audiences for the competitions, video presentations to be shown on Day 1 and Day 2 and play some parlor games.
- ✓ Give out flowers and Christmas Packages to the grandmothers.
