PROGRAM DESIGN

GENUS: PAGMARAGUL KUNG KULE

I. Rationale

“Pagmaragul Kung Kule” is a phrase that encourages self-acceptance and embracing one's racial or ethnic background. It promotes the idea of celebrating diversity and recognizing the beauty of different skin tones. It is a reminder to appreciate and take pride in the unique characteristics that make each individual special. Embracing one's color also means rejecting any form of discrimination or bias based on skin color. It is about fostering inclusivity and promoting equality.

The Mabalacat City College (MCC) Silab Ning Aldo is dedicated in building an inclusive community for all students that is free from discrimination based on gender and sexual orientation. MCC upholds the rights of students and staff to ensure their security and well-being. While the Silab Ning Aldo, a student organization, supports the college in upholding these rights and promotes inclusivity in diversity among students.

More than the competition, the main goal of this of the “Pagmaragul Kung Kule” event is to impart knowledge about LGBT history to people who will be participating in this event on November 22, 2023. This is because the history of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) persons and cultures around the world can be traced back to the earliest known examples of same-sex love and sexuality in the ancient civilizations. However, it is only in more recent decades have efforts been made to investigate and incorporate what endures after centuries of persecution—resulting in shame, suppression, and secret. Hence, this event will only be fitting as a way to educate MCC students about matters that traverses LGBT history.

II. Objectives

The specific objectives of the program are the following:

- a. To educate MCC students about LGBT history.
- b. To inform students about the origins of the acronym of different LGBTQ spectrum.
- c. To showcase the skills of Drag Artists of MCCians.
- d. To appreciate the lessons and values of Pride in a Theater act.

III. Strategies

- Submit the program design to the respective POC (Point of Contact) concerning the event.
- Coordinate with the four (4) institute student councils: ITE, IBCE, IHTM, and IAS in collecting the information of their representatives (name, age, year, and section) through SSC.
- Recruit (at least 4) effective judges.
- Coordinate written papers needed by the participants and committees.
- Coordinate with Events and Institutional Production in designing the venue and stage.
- Secure the approval of the event from the respective POC concerning the event.
