MABALACAT CITY COLLEGE

MCC'S LIFELONG LEARNING CENTER

The MCC Lifelong Learning Center, formerly known as the Mabalacat Manpower Development Center, has transformed into an invaluable resource for the community, particularly for individuals seeking non-formal educational pathways. Now located in the Sapang Biabas Resettlement area, this center is dedicated to supporting Mabalacat City College's (MCC) mission of inclusive education by offering free, accessible training and skill-building opportunities that are aligned with the demands of today's dynamic job market.

With a focus on bridging educational and employment gaps, the Lifelong Learning Center empowers community members who may lack access to formal education yet seek meaningful ways to improve their skills and livelihoods. This dedicated facility plays a critical role in MCC's workforce development initiatives, providing hands-on, practical training that boosts employability, instills confidence, and expands career options. By offering specialized courses and skill-enhancement programs at no cost, MCC is creating a supportive environment that not only enhances individual career growth but also strengthens the local economy by cultivating a skilled, job-ready workforce.

The impact of the Lifelong Learning Center on the people of Mabalacat is profound. For many, the center is a gateway to new opportunities—opening doors to employment in industries that are essential to the region's growth. By lowering barriers to education and equipping learners with relevant skills, the center empowers individuals to contribute more fully to their communities. MCC's commitment to this initiative reinforces its role as a catalyst for positive social change, demonstrating the transformative power of accessible, lifelong learning in fostering economic resilience and sustainable development in Mabalacat and beyond.
