I. RATIONALE

- August is known for the month of History and in conjunction with its celebration, the PANTALAKAYAN Organization intends to open an exhibit in San Francisco that will focus on the promotion of Balakat Tree's Historical and Cultural Awareness (ABeHCA). In addition, the PANTALAKAYAN Organization together with SIBUL ning Kalalangan will also launch an Art Exhibit, which this exhibit will contribute a key part in developing the target audience's level of historical understanding in relation to the History Month theme of "Democratizing History for the People." The event is permitted to all Mabalacat City College students, staff, faculty, and the public and requires no fee for entrance.

II. OBJECTIVE

- To assist the local residents, the general public outside the community, and most especially the students in broadening their historical and cultural understanding regarding the Balakat Trees as well as the origin of the city's name.
- To more effectively impart historical knowledge to the guests and visitors about the history of one's local community while fostering a sense of understanding and togetherness.
- To put each one together and help widen their awareness about the history and better promote the democratizing of history by launching this ABeHCA and Art Exhibit.

III. STRATEGIES

- The Adviser of the PANTALAKAYAN organization organizes an ABeHCA program exhibit in collaboration with JCI, SIBUL ning Kalalangan, and the PANTALAKAYAN Organization to
